

Red carpet secrets

In the glare of the spotlight, on holiday or prowling the clubs, here's how these top stars get their radiant glow

REVEALED

ERNO LASZLO SKINCARE RANGE

CELEB FAN Nicole Kidman

'I love Erno Laszlo skincare. It's been around since 1939,' says the mum-to-be. WHY YOU'LL LOVE IT Dermatologist Dr Laszlo developed his famed skincare line almost 70 years ago and it's been a firm favourite of Hollywood celebs ever since, even Marilyn Monroe was a major fan. The original formulas have been enhanced with help from an impressive posse of leading plastic surgeons and dermatologists. Dr Laszlo's skincare system harnesses the replenishing properties of water and it also relies heavily on a thorough cleansing of the skin.

CELEB FAN Naomi Watts

'I wear sunscreen even on cloudy or rainy days, no matter what,' Naomi says.

WHY YOU'LL LOVE IT Jan Marini's name is synonymous with effective, no-fuss skincare. In the US, her products are extremely popular and they're gaining momentum here too. The Antioxidant Daily Face Protectant SPF 30 doesn't feel heavy or greasy like some sunscreens. Instead it gives a lasting, oil-free matte finish.

STILA ALL OVER SHIMMER POWDER, $36

CELEB FAN Jennifer Garner

The busy mum always keeps this handy.

WHY YOU'LL LOVE IT We know this little shimmery gem was designed to be worn as an eyeshadow, but it can be worn virtually anywhere on your face. It comes in nine different shades, but gold is the most versatile - mix the powder with your favourite cream blush for a beautiful glow.
